1. The commanding officer of the new PS (Border Guard) brigade at Usti nad Labem is 1st Lt. (sic) Trojacek (fnu), who was appointed in September 1952. Previously, he had been the commanding officer of the 2nd Battalion of the 5th PS Brigade at As. This brigade became a link in the chain of Border Guard brigades located along the northern Czechoslovak border.
2. The placing of PS brigades along the Czech-Polish border is the result of the expiration of an agreement with Poland according to which Poland had been taking care of the border.
